

ENGLISH

The English program offers a wide variety of courses leading to the degree of Associate in Arts for Transfer. Students can take the full range of literature survey courses required to transfer as an English major at our local public universities, including CSUCI, UCSB, CSUN, and UCLA. The English program offers multiple sections of degree-applicable and transfer-level writing courses to give students the writing skills to succeed in college, to write in the workplace, and to meet university transfer requirements.

- All students may enroll directly into ENGL R101, which is transfer-level.
- Classes are offered in traditional classroom formats as well as in partially online or fully online formats. Some sections of ENGL R100, and ENGL R101 have additional support for students who wish for extra help in writing.
- To determine which classes are the right ones for you, you can speak with your counselor or the department chair, Dr. Claudia Moreno Parsons (cmorenoparsons@vcccd.edu), for help in choosing the appropriate English classes. English also offers honors classes: ENGL R101H and ENGL R102H.
- In addition to the many literature courses offered each semester, there are regularly scheduled courses in creative writing. Literature and creative writing courses are offered both online and in the classroom. A degree in English prepares students for a variety of career opportunities in which the ability to read insightfully, think critically, and write clearly are necessary skills.
- Please see the English department website (<https://www.oxnardcollege.edu/departments/academic/english/>) for more information.
