

POLITICAL SCIENCE, ASSOCIATE IN ARTS

The Associate in Arts degree in Political Science introduces students to political theory, the American political system and government structure including the process of local, state, and federal governments and its relationship to the international/global system. Students learn the skills of logical reasoning, critical analysis, fact gathering and developing effective arguments. In addition, students in the program gain an understanding for, and appreciation of, the American political system.

The Associate in Arts degree in Political Science requires a 15 unit core of the most common courses found in Political Science majors at both the UC and CSU. Requiring only 6 units of restricted electives, it is structured in a way that allows students to customize their major based on their intended transfer destination or their academic interests. Students may choose the general education pattern most appropriate for their educational goal including the Oxnard College General Education pattern, CSU GE-Breadth, or IGETC.
