

ART & ART HISTORY

The Art and Art History program encourages all students to discover and explore the visual arts. Studio Art courses provide training in art practice, including drawing, life drawing, painting, color and design, three-dimensional art, digital photography, and digital arts. Art History courses introduce students to the study of art and explore the history of visual art traditions throughout the world, from antiquity to the present. The program is supported by the McNish Gallery of Art, which brings contemporary art to campus and provides students an opportunity to gain hands-on experience in gallery work.

Many courses in the Art and Art History program are transferable and satisfy general education requirements. Degree programs include an AA degree in Art - Two-Dimensional Studio and AA-T degrees (Associate in Arts for Transfer) in Studio Arts and in Art History.

The Art and Art History program emphasizes creative and critical thinking, skills that are useful in all walks of life!

ART R101 Introduction to Art and Visual Culture 3 Units

In-Class Hours: 52.5 lecture

C-ID: ARTH 100

Art is among the most complex and dynamic forms of human creative expression. Visual art forms like painting and sculpture have been practiced since prehistoric times, and served diverse political, religious, and social purposes. Today, new media and techniques expand our visual imagination in a global cultural environment. In this introductory course, students learn how to understand and enjoy art, and gain skills in critically assessing contemporary visual culture. Topics include art media and techniques, formal elements, design principles, style, meaning, interpretation, and major themes and topics in the study of art and visual culture. Coursework emphasizes study of visual materials, including art exhibitions, and builds skills in close looking, critical thinking, and creative thought.
